EDITORIAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Dear Readers

I hope everyone had a good Christmas and enjoyed spending time with family and friends.

January is a very quiet month after all the Christmas festivities, however we do have something to look forward to and that is the Kingsley Players Pantomime. This year they are performing 'The Pompeii Panto' from 28th-31st January. Please see centre page ad for further details.

A little further into the future, there will be the Community Spirit Award Open Day, planned for 28th March., details are on the next page. If you would like to get involved with this please contact Vony.

Wishing everyone a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

Community Spirit Update

Since we finished the written entry for the national Community Spirit entry, we have been busy planning the day of the Judges visit. We plan to have displays by all of Kingsley's organisations in the Community Centre as well as a short tour of the village. Although the visit will be on a weekday, we thought that we could use it as an excuse for a village "Open Day" during the nearest weekend.

A Date for your Diary - Saturday 28th March

If you've been on the kingsleyvillage.co.uk website you might have seen a survey asking for ideas for what we could do for the Open Day. Popular ideas are a walking Treasure Hunt, a walk in Warburton Woods, a Farm open day, afternoon tea in the Community Centre and a display or performance by the children.

Work is now starting on planning the day. If you have any ideas for other events or you'd like to help, please contact me.

"Down your Way" – Kingsley People and Places

Radio 4 listeners will probably remember Down Your Way, a programme that visited town and villages and described them through the voices of local people. Lynn Pegler has bravely volunteered to create something similar for Kingsley. We will be producing a DVD with interviews with a local farmer, schoolchildren, the churches, our clubs and associations and others with special memories of Kingsley through the years. The DVD will be on sale on the Open Day. Anyone with ideas about things to be included should contact me.

Anyone active in the village during November will have noticed that we were taking photographs. This was for a display called "A Month in the Life of Kingsley". We now have many pictures which we need to display. We will be having a day at the Community Centre in early February to create a giant display. If you'd like to come and join us, please let me know. Artistic flair will be particularly welcome.

Don't forget, our written entry is on the village website. If you can't access it, please give me a call and I'll drop a copy off for you.

Litter Pick Update

The December litter pick saw 8 of us who collected 8 bags of rubbish. I thought that this was fantastic so close to Christmas and raining. Thank you to the team and also to those who collect litter as they walk around the village.

The next litter picks will be on Saturday 10th January and Saturday 7th February. Both will start at 10.00 am at the Community Centre.

New helpers are always welcome.

We provide all the equipment needed.

KINGSLEY CRICKET CLUB

Founded 1971

Kingsley Cricket Club urgently need a scorer for the 2009 Season. Good fun and camaraderie can be guaranteed. Full training can be given. The Club may even be able to run to paying a match by match fee to a suitable applicant!

All those interested should speak to 1st XI Captain Neil Rowlands, or any Committee Member, or telephone Club Secretary Keith Trenell on 01928 788465.

Kingsley Gardening Club

It might appear to the untrained eye that winter gardens have gone into hibernation along with the hedgehogs. But take a closer look. If you walk around the village you'll see that this is not so.

Shrubs seem to make the most impact in a winter garden with bulbs not too far behind, snowdrops being one of the first flowers to appear. Mahonias with racemes of yellow scented flowers continue to flower for many weeks. Another shrub, Skimmia japonica 'Rubella' has wonderful buds of deep maroon and is often grown with early flowering Viburnum Bodnantense 'Dawn' which is fragrant. A plant worth growing by the door for winter scent is Lonicera purpusii. The flowers are small but they don't half pack a punch on the perfume front. Something with a bit more drama is Hamamelis mollis or witch hazel, as it is known. Its erect leafless stems are covered in flame coloured spidery flowers wafting a subtle scent to passersby. When winter arrives, heathers finally come into their own. Clumps of Erica carnea have flowers ranging from white through to red.

By January, most of the red berries will have been gobbled up by the birds but some do remain untouched, along with the pink, yellow and white berries of the more choice Sorbus trees. Cornus, or dogwood, is grown for its winter coloured stems. The fiery colours of yellow, orange or red look stunning given the right backdrop.

I hope I have whetted your appetite with just a few tasters of the colours which can be seen in winter gardens around Kingsley. To find out more about gardening, why not come along to the Kingsley Gardening Club on the second Monday of the month (except January). Our next meeting is on Euphorbias by the well known Don Witton (as seen on T.V.) on Monday 9th February 2009 at 8.00pm in the Community Centre where visitors are very welcome

ROUND TABLE

It was with great delight that Frodsham and District Roundtables Christmas float 're-appeared' in Kingsley, after several missing years.

Kingsley resident and current Chairman Darren Townsend said 'it was absolutely tremendous to get back to Kingsley with the float this year, and the response from the residents was brilliant, to say the least. The Kingsley route has swelled the charity and good causes funds by £408. This is remarkable, considering most residents were not expecting us.

The donations provide Roundtable with the opportunity to support local Charity and good causes. An example of this is the recent funding to Newton Hall Residential Home of £300 towards the residents' Christmas activities – Santa even paid them a visit!

Another member and Kingsley resident, Ian Hayes commented 'there was a real interest in Roundtable and Ladies circle from a number of residents, and we hope they follow up their interest by visiting our web site www.rt940.co.uk, where they can find contact and joining details'.

All members of Frodsham and District Roundtable would like to thank everybody who took part and contributed to the Christmas Float in Kingsley this year and look forward to seeing you again in 2009, either on the float, or as a new member – all the best for the New Year.

Dear Readers,

Looking back at the Festive Season, there was lots to celebrate, share and reflect upon... here are some of the highlights...

- Our Carol Service was celebrated in Church, and was a mixture of songs, readings and reflection enabling us to think about the message of Christmas. Thanks to Vicar Pete for leading the Service and to Friends for helping with refreshments back in school.
- The School's Annual Christmas Production was performed in the Community Centre and was entitled 'Tinsel and Tea Towels' – both of which were very much in evidence! It told the story of a school preparing for their Christmas Nativity, interspersed with an Ofsted Inspection! It was thoroughly enjoyed by all.
- This year, all the children specially designed their own Christmas cards and had small supplies printed to send to their friends and family.
- Year 2 children enjoyed a visit to Frodsham Main Street Chapel to take a walk through the Christmas journey. They enjoyed card making, role play, singing and drama based on the Christmas Story.
- A festive Christmas lunch with decorated tables, crackers and a pre-Christmas visit from Father Christmas, (who distributed special gifts to each class!) was enjoyed by the children in the last week of term.
- Parents and friends enjoyed the opportunity to pamper themselves at a Pamper evening organised by Friends. There was a range of lovely gifts and beauty treatments on offer.

The school would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone and Happy New Year.

THE JINORMOUS JUMBLE

The annual Kingsley Jumble and Book Sale is to be held early next month, so now is the time to think about what redundant goods you might have for disposal.

Book the date now! - it's Saturday 7th February. Your unwanted goods (except books!) can be brought to the Kingsley Community Centre from 10.00 am on the morning of the Sale.

Clean paperback books are welcome ahead of the event to enable sorting – ring Peter on 788794 for information. [No magazines or Reader's Digest condensed books are accepted – take them direct to the recycle skip!]

If you can help with sorting or selling or clearing up on the day it would be very much appreciated.

LATEST NEWS.....

We did a production of 'Bone Chiller' in October, which was a great success, with 4 very well attended houses. Our audiences enjoyed the laughs, gasps and the puzzle of uncle Josia's will.

As for our evening of 'Allo 'Allo, which was a sell out, a wonderful team put together a fantastic evening of entertainment. Our catering team, under the firm guidance of Joan, provided a 3 course meal fit for any French restaurant, which of course was café René. A revolving stage had Edith's mother and M. LeClerc in bed, with the radio hidden in the parsons nose of a parrot underneath! René and all the usual characters put on a splendid show for a full house of 'loyal French peasants' and two sports who were 'the British airmen'. A great night enjoyed by all.

Our Panto at the end of January is 'The Pompei Panto'. Tickets are available from our online box office - see our website www.kingsleyplayers.co.uk

Many thanks for all your ongoing support.

Audrey Boyle (Chairman)

THANK YOU KINGSLEY from Team Oasis

At the Hurst Parade Service on 7th December an amazing collection of Christmas gifts was brought by villagers for the children of Team Oasis, many of whom come from disadvantaged families in the Toxteth area. The Principal of the charity writes as follows:

“Just wanted to say a massive thank you. I cannot begin to explain just how much your collective kindness has meant to Team Oasis and to me personally. This past year has been rather arduous to say the least. However the link with the Hurst and the Kingsley Community has been a beacon of encouragement and inspiration.

You have not only supported our Charity at this our most difficult time of need: you have supported us with an overflowing abundance. I am thrilled to bits about what the future holds between our two communities.

Your friendships, prayers and fellowship will be part of our lifelong action plan and we couldn't be more thankful. It is obvious to me that Gods love is abundant in your church and community. With all our love and thanks,

Paul Nilson & all at Team Oasis Children's Charity.”

Kingsley WI

Kingsley WI hosted the Weaver Vale Carol Service at The Hurst Methodist Church on Monday 1st December followed by tea and mince pies. It was a very enjoyable occasion with excellent singing from the WI choir ably assisted by the congregation which included the Rev Steve Santry.

At the meeting Janet Brundrett gave members an account of her stay at Denman College where she had attended a course entitled Gospel Music. She had thoroughly enjoyed the whole "Denman" experience and had made new friends. Participants had learnt about the history of gospel music as well as singing and taking part in a concert. The favourite piece had been The Storm Is Over which people had found very moving.

The speakers for the evening were Berit and Rita from Frodsham but originally from Norway who told us about Norwegian Christmas customs and food and brought examples of decorations and cakes.

The January meeting will be on 7th January which will be the Christmas meal in the Community Centre

Cheshire Home Maintenance can undertake general maintenance contracts, as well as those nagging little jobs, from a dripping tap to refurbishing a room or entire property! Do you need some painting and decorating doing, a bathroom or kitchen installing, but haven't got the time for DIY? Why not let us do it for you, we can do home improvements, carpentry, tiling, plumbing etc. So there is no need to get separate tradesmen, we do the lot at a competitive price
