EDITORIAL NEWS AND VIEWS

Dear Readers

Summer is nearly here, although it is still quite cold, but gardens everywhere are looking very colourful. During this month and in July several gardens in Kingsley will be open to the public to raise funds for various charities. If anyone would like to write a report or send me a picture of their garden open day please send it to me and I will put them in the next edition.

Our quarterly local produce market will be on 13th June, can't believe how quickly this excellent market comes round.

The Kingsley Theatre Group have a few seats still available for Barnum on 6th August and for The Girls on 18th January, both events will be an excellent night out.

There are also plenty of other events in the village, see the ads for The Institute and for The Community Association. Also the St John's summer fete. There is something for everyone.

Finally, I would just like to remind everyone that there will not be a magazine in August. Therefore if anyone wishes to advertise an event being held during August or September, I need your ads by the 21st June for inclusion in the July edition.

Elizabeth

Usage of The Centre has increased due to the efforts of the current committee. New ideas and events are always welcome, and if anyone would like to get involved with a single event or on a longer term basis then please get in touch.

Kingsley Players put on their wonderful and popular performances throughout the year.

The Centre now has a scintillating dance floor – its a fabulous venue for a party, be it Birthday, Anniversary, Retirement or Wedding Celebrations. Children's Parties are particularly popular! It is not just the place to go to for a big function; we have occasional individual bookings, for example for model plane flying, or rock band practise.

So there is potentially something there of interest for everyone : it is truly a Centre for the Community.

Kingsley Bookworms – May 2015

We had 11 people at our May meeting when we talked about “Tuesdays with Morrie” by Mitch Albom. We scored it 4.08 out of 5 (very precise!). This month we are reading Cuckoo's Calling by Robert Galbraith. The next meeting will be on Thursday 4th June at the Red Bull, starting at 7.30pm.

During June we will be reading “Necessary Lies” by Diane Chamberlain for discussion on July 2nd.

We decided on Laurie Lee for the July book (to be discussed August 6th). The main book is “Cider with Rosie” although a few people were keen to read Laurie Lee’s the trilogy of “Cider with Rosie”, “As I walked out One Midsummer Morning” and “A Moment of War”.

Our meetings follow a pattern, starting with a discussion about last month’s book and then a chat about books we enjoy and recommend. Then we decide what to read next which is always great fun.

I look forward to our next meeting which I hope will be as much fun as all the others! Everyone is welcome to come along.

If you want more information, please contact me on vgwillim@coach-work.co.uk or call me on 01928 789098.

BEWARE OF SCAMMERS

A Kingsley resident has got into contact with PCSO Phil Brandreth and would like residents to be aware that they were victim to an attempted fraud which they have reported to their bank and action fraud. The company called up the residents claiming to be ‘Talk Talk’ and stated that there were software problems and they would like to reimburse the resident and compensate them. The company kept the resident on the phone for over an hour. They require bank account details over the phone to proceed with the call and compensation. If you have any calls like this please report it as soon as possible to PCSO Brandreth on

THANK YOU

Ursula Martin would sincerely like to thank all her friends, neighbours and people in Kingsley for their support and kindness during her recent illness.

Steady progress is being made and Ursula will always be grateful to everyone involved.

George Killip

At the end of January Kingsley said goodbye to one its oldest and best known residents. George Killip who would have celebrated his hundredth birthday on the 17th May, died on the 29th January and was buried in Kingsley cemetery on Friday, 6th February after a funeral service at the Hurst Chapel.

George was born the seventh in a family of 7 boys and 3 girls, on the Isle of Man, of which he was very proud. He and Myra visited the island often, their last visit being in September last year when their grandson, Peter, took them over for a week. At 15, responding to an advertisement for the army, he 'Joined the Army to see the World', adding 2 years on to his age in order to do so, and served for 7 years. He did travel, stationed at different places in India and then in the Khyber Pass, before being put through a teacher training course after which he taught in the Regimental School for 18 months. In 1938 he was presented with the famous 50shilling Hepworth suit and £1 for every year of service i.e. £8 in his case.

In September, 1939 he was called up again from his job in Liverpool to join the 87th Field Regiment and mobilised at the Abbey Arms in Delamere. At this point his long connection with Kingsley began, when he and a friend stopped to ask a young Myra Eaton from Hind Cottage in Top Lane the way to the pub. They were married in 1941, shortly before George's embarkation for India and Burma via Cape Town & Madagascar. He returned 4 years later, having survived movements to and fro to Persia, Baghdad, Damascus, Cairo, Algiers, Sicily. He went from Iraq to Palestine to take up his commission as Captain. George and Myra then got to know each other. He returned to the Civil Service in Chester and, after gaining a diploma in Vocational Training, was appointed as Youth Employment Officer with Cheshire Education Department in 1948. He remained in this job till 1965, when he was seconded to the Overseas Development and assigned to the Windward Islands (they had to look them up in the atlas!) to make recommendations about the employment of young people. They were based in St Lucia and a new, very different phase in the life of the family, which now included their daughter, Deborah, began.

George found very few resources available and youth unemployment was between 70 and 80%. With the help of Rotarians worldwide he managed to get things going and two years later a vocational training college was set up in St Lucia. He founded the first Rotary Club there where there are now three. Myra decided to provide some work for the girls by starting up a perfumery, creating local perfumes and toiletries. They loved the life on the island so George decided against going back to his job in Cheshire, and joined Myra at the perfumery. They stayed in St Lucia till they retired back to Hind Cottage in Kingsley in the seventies.

Since then he and Myra have led very active lives, playing golf at Sandiway, travelling, gardening, entertaining friends, playing bridge, watching their two grandsons grow up and of course George continued as an active member of Runcorn Rotary Club, which, just before he died, had decided to name a new cup The George Killip Trophy in recognition of his 68 years membership. Now it will be known as The George Killip Memorial Trophy.

George was also SAAFA's Appeals Director in the area for some time and Chairman of the Lewis Carroll Society in Daresbury. He continued to be active, always replying to any enquiry as to how he was with the words 'First Class', till last December when he fell and broke his collar-bone – very nearly '100 and Not Out'!

We all miss you, George.

News from Kingsley Cricket Club

The season is now in full swing with all our teams in action – and a record number of junior players being coached and playing for the Club.

We have some dates for your diary in addition to our weekend fixtures if you'd like to come along and support your local club:

11 June – Local Schools Kwik Cricket Competition (10-4)

12 June – BBQ from 6.30 (with junior coaching as usual)

14 June – Kingsley CC XI Vs Cheshire Cobras Visually Impaired Team

3 July – BBQ and Junior Awards night from 6.30

As well as these days we also have senior training from 6pm every Tuesday – new players always welcome

Our main fundraising event is our annual beer festival: 18 & 19 SEPTEMBER

There are great opportunities to sponsor this event – the money we raise helps us provide an extensive programme of cricket – both coaching and matches.

As well as our senior games a typical week might see 3 or 4 junior games plus Friday night coaching – the beer festival is essential to help us maintain our facilities, train coaches and provide equipment – so please come along, bring your friends and think about sponsoring a barrel.

We also need your support in publicising the festival and the Club – so please follow us on Twitter (@kccscores) and like us on facebook (www.facebook.com/KingsleyCricketClub).

KNVI June News

We were all delighted at how well the Open Day went on 4th May. The weather, food and company were all good and we would like to thank all those who helped and attended.

Sir Alan Waterworth , a former Patron said he was very pleased to see progress and support thus far.

There were many reasons for the day : we wanted to welcome you to the Institute; to show off the facilities; and to listen to what you had to say. In light of this there are some changes we would like to make.

Friends will now have the offer of training sessions for Bowls on a Monday afternoon and at the weekend by arrangement, at no extra cost (for others, £2.50 and you will need to book).

Friends will now be able to play tennis at no extra cost (others £2.50, you will need to book)

Friends' children under 16 : no charge to use any of the facilities but they must be accompanied by an adult.

We hope these changes meet with your approval. We are having a Barbecue, bowls and Rusty racquets tennis (fun for rusty players) on 20th June. We hope to see you there .

Kind regards

The Trustees

NCK Mothers' Union

Just one last word about Phoenix House - All the items were delivered to their offices and they really were appreciated. One family was moving out from the 'Safe House' on the Friday and was able to make use of a selection of the items. The Mothers' Union and the Parishioners were sincerely thanked and on behalf of us all I have agreed to be a contact for specific items needed. My appeals to you will be put in this magazine. Please see the Thank you letter from Phoenix house in the Pharmacy.

Moving on - We had our talk from Mr Armitage about Occupational Therapy and his approach to working with people suffering from Dementia. It was reassuring to hear about the support and training he feels is needed for carers. We all left feeling as though if we were ever unfortunate enough to suffer from this disease, that we and our carers would come under his care.

Our visit to Anglesey had to be postponed - for a very good reason - the chosen date clashed with Christian Aid week and performances by members of the Weaver Valley Choir. It is nice our members are so active!

Our next meeting, May 28th, at the NCK centre, is to be a balance of sheer fun and planning ahead. We are to hold a games evening and are to launch the knitting patterns for Operation Christmas Child. If you have time and inclination to knit some items for this Christmas appeal we will be launching in the Autumn, please contact me on 01928 732508. Many hands make light work!

Of course we have another visit planned - Manley Knoll Gardens are being opened especially for us on June 2nd, we will appreciate this privileged opportunity. Let us hope the sun is shining.

WI News

With the recent news that the Duchess of Cambridge has recently joined her local WI in Norfolk, what about you Ladies out there in their 30s and 40s giving it a go by joining your local group here in KINGSLEY!!

The WI has an enormous amount to offer locally, nationally and internationally and younger members will bring fresh ideas to ensure that this prestigious and influential organisation continues to serve modern woman. So feel free to visit any of our meetings held on the first Wednesday of the month; you will be most welcome.

So here's briefly what we have been up to lately.

Our Bowlers have been out practising at the Village Institute receiving some helpful hints from some of the much more skilled villagers! The Walkers failed to meet up this month but in April walked the new Oakmere Way enjoying some refreshment halfway at Stoneycroft Nursery (+ a wee bit of retail therapy !!). The Book Club plans to read The Girl on the Train by Paula Hawkins.

The speakers were very much enjoyed at our regular meetings. In April we were inspired to make more use of our Garden Space and this month our Speaker 'a once fat and stressed Banker ' gave an entertaining account of her life on the ocean as a Cruise Ship Speaker!

Also very much enjoyed was a viewing of Bernard Shaws " Man and Superman " by way of Theatre Live at Runcorn Cinema where we shall shortly return to view Puccini's opera "La Boheme"

We continue celebrating the founding of our Cheshire Federation by attending various events such as a evening full of music, songs and laughter put on by the Weaver Valley Choir! We have yet to look forward to other celebrations one at Gawsorth Hall and a Local Garden Party kindly hosted by Chris Wouldsa lot of delicious cakes will be consumed that's for sure!

Our next meeting on June 3rd at 7. 30pm promises to be most amusing as a Jean Finney shares memorable moments from Joyce Grenfell's life. Visitors are always welcome.

N.B Our stamp collection to raise money for Country Women Worldwide is still ongoing. We would appreciate if more stamps(provided they have at least a cm border) could be donated to this worthy cause by handing them to any WI member or to Anita Molyneux at Kingsley cottage Town Well.....thank you .

Kingsley Walking Group

The short walk, on 29 April was a five miler starting from the Plough at Whitegate. A novel route took us through Foxtwist Green, past the back of Petty pool, returning along the Whitegate Way. A dozen or so of us enjoyed the walk and the meal afterwards.

The Long Walk, on 12 May, was from Tegg's Nose Country Park, to the east of Macclesfield. In elevated, rolling countryside we followed a route eastward to Chapel House Farm, then northward towards Lamaload reservoir, returning finally along a section of the Gritstone Way. After dropping off our rucksacks at the cars, we explored Teggs Nose, with its historic quarry and distant views. Returning we passed through a field full of wild pansies. 8.5 miles in all. After a short shower the rest of the day was blustery, which helped to keep us cool on the hill climbs

'We came across this curious signpost, indicating 'This Way', 'That Way', and 'The Other Way'.

Kingsley Walking Group have two walks each month: on the second Tuesday there is a long walk of 7 - 8.5 miles (bring a packed lunch); on the last Wednesday a short walk of approximately 5 miles with a coffee break and pub lunch. We meet at the Community Centre at 9.30am (Note however an earlier start of 9.00am for the long walks from May to September). Information on the walks programme may be found on the Walking Club page of the Kingsley Village website. For more information tel. 788132 (short walks), 788068 (long walks).
